AT his office, next door below Crawford's tavern, Bridge-st. Georgetown, will exchange all kinds of Bank Notes on the most reasonable terms.—All persons who may have notes on the banks of North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia, would do well to call on him, as he is largely in the purchase of that kind of money, and will take it on the most reasonable terms.—Persons travelling to the Western Country may at all times get the Bank Notes of the Western Banks at a fair discount, by calling at his Office. For the information of all persons throughout the U. States, R. IS a paper which is published, every Saturday, at the city of Washington, in the District of Columbia, and each number contains sixteen pages octavo, in small but very legible type. The Public Documents, both foreign and domestic; the proceedings of Congress, and authentic news of every description, are regularly inserted therein, and accompanied by critical and explanatory remarks. Its value is also enhanced by occasional reviews of literary works; and all its sentiments are decidedly American, independent of all party considerations. GAZETTE

ROYAL-STREET.

Daily Gazette, 7 dolls...Country, 5 dolls.

TUESDAY, MARCH 23, 1819.

MR. EDITOR,

Should you think the following worthy of insertion in the "Gazette," you will thereby oblige A FRIEND.

From the London Literary Gazette.

Morn, sweetly blushing, leaves her dewy bed, [vent tell;
Air's thousand tongues, her welcome ad-
But, hark! from yonder mansion of the dead,
Why tolls so dismally the village bell?

It was not wont thus to appal mine ear,
As, with the dawn, I oft have hailed its chime;
Or oft, at even tide, have lingered near,
To count its stroke, that marked the flight of time.

But now, through wood and glen, with heavy sound, [breeze,
Its long, dull echoes, load the morning
That seems in sighs to ask the hills around,
"When heard ye e'er such sick'ning notes as these?"

For, none before, this peaceful vale had known, [while,
Save such as speak the fleeting hour the
Or such as summon with their solemn tone,
The neighb'ring hamlet to yon sacred pile;

Or haply, save some more impressive chime,
That greets the parting spirit to its home;
But ne'er before, through long remembered time, [dome.
Such sound as this had left yon village

But, hark again! it is the convict's knell,
The warning voice of death——and lo!
'tis past; [cell,
Now, child of sorrow, quit thy prison-
Thy cup of bitterness to drain at last.

A few short moments, make thy life a dream, [away;
Which the oblivious dawn, hath chased
Yet, as the vision flies, perchance a gleam,
Shall turn the coming prospect into day.

EDUCATION

Is a companion which no misfortune can depress—no clime destroy—no enemy alienate—no despotism enslave. At home a friend—abroad an introduction—in solitude a solace—in society an ornament. It chastens vice—it guides virtue—it gives at once, grace and government to genius. Without it what is man? A splendid slave! a reasoning savage! vacillating between the dignity of an intelligence derived from God, and the degradation of passions participated with brutes.

Among all the instances of horrid ferocity in battle, perhaps there is none surpasses the following:

In the year 1512, Henry VIII King of England, sent out an English fleet under Admiral Knevet, which coasted near the French shores. This fleet having committed some depredations, a French fleet, dispatched by Francis king of France, issued from Brest, under the command of Admiral Premauget. An engagement between them begun; and the fire presently seized the ship of the French Admiral, who finding his destruction inevitable, bore down upon the vessel of the English Admiral, and grappling with her, resolved to make her share his fate. In this situation, while the flames were consuming both vessels, their respective crews continued the horrid combat in sight of both fleets, which stood aloof from the awful engagement; and their furious shouts continued to be heard, till at last the French vessel blew up, and at the same time destroyed the English.

Gonsalvo, surnamed the Great Captain, took Naples by storm in the year 1503; and when some of his soldiers murmured at not having had a sufficient share in the spoil of that rich city, Gonsalvo nobly replied, "I will repair your bad fortune. Go to my apartment, take there all you can find——I give it all into your hands."

MARRIAGE.

The man who passes his life without a wife, will contract unsocial habits, be displeased with the world, and in the winter of his years will stand like a lonely tree on an extensive plain, his breast exposed to every blast of misfortune, without a companion to soothe his troubles and wipe away tears wrung by misery.

When a lawyer, on his passage to Europe was one day walking the deck, it having blown pretty hard the preceding day, a shark was playing by the ship. Having never seen such an object before, he called to one of the sailors to tell him what it was. "Why," replied the tar, "I dont know what name they know 'em by ashore, but here we call 'em sea Lawyers."

ALEXANDRIA:
TUESDAY, MARCH 23, 1819.

MR. EDITOR,

It is the duty of every man in society, as far as it is in his power, to exert himself for the suppression of vice, and endeavor by his talents and genius to mould down the angry passions and revengeful disposition of our nature, to a rational and moral standard of rectitude and sobriety. There is no practice—no vice, I will say, which demands and requires the application of an effectual remedy, so much as that of DUELLING.—The misery entailed upon families—the consequences to be feared from a studied observance of what are called the "laws of honor"—the wretched turpitude of the offence—the rashness of braving an eternity, perhaps, with our souls crimsoned with the blood of a friend, must excite feelings of pain and commisseration, and bid us hope for its entire removal from civilized society.

These remarks were excited from perceiving a printed sheet, entitled "An Antidote for Duelling," just issued from a press in this town, neatly executed, with appropriate remarks and texts from scripture. It is entitled to the patronage and attention of the citizens generally, and may not fail to do much good.

New-York, March, 18,

IMPORTANT TO MERCHANTS.

The Legislature of this state have, during their present session, in compliance with the memorial of the chamber of commerce, passed a law imposing the following damages on bills of exchange that may hereafter be drawn on places within the United States or places adjacent thereto, and returned under protest for non-payment, to wit,

Drafts on New-Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New-Jersey, Pennsylvania Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, or District of Columbia, 5 per cent.

On North or South Carolina or Georgia, 7½ per cent.

On any other state or territory of the United States, on or adjacent to this continent, and north of the equator, comprehending the British and all other foreign possessions in the West Indies, and elsewhere in the western atlantic ocean, 10 per cent.

These damages to be in lieu of interest and all charges to the time at which the notice of the protest has been given, and the amount, if drawn in the currency of the United States, to be paid at par, if in any other currency, at the rate of exchange current at the time of such notice.

Much benefit may be expected by the commercial community, from this necessary and long wished for provision against the innumerable spoilations of financiering speculators. [Gazette.

STATUE OF WASHINGTON.

We have been favored with the perusal of a letter from Mr. Appleton, our consul at Leghorn, to his excellency the governor, on the subject of the Statue of Washington which was ordered by our legislature. The following is an extract from the letter.—"The inscription is placed on the architrave of the front part of the pedestal; below is represented Lord Cornwallis delivering his Sword to General Washington; in both groups appear about 12 military figures. No. 2 represents Washington resigning his commission into the hands of the President of Congress at the close of the war. No. 3 is Washington receiving the unanimous suffrage, which placed him at the head of the government; and No. 4 is Washington holding a plough drawn by two oxen; behind is an humble cottage, near to which are seen Ceres and Mercury, with their suitable emblems. These appear to my mind, the four most interesting epochas of his life; and as they are sculptured by the most able hands, I hope they will meet your approbation." In another part he mentions that it would be completed during the present year.

An extract of a letter from capt. Vincent of the schnr Eudora, received in this city, dated Nassau, N. P. March 1st, 1819, says —"The Sunday night after leaving Charleston, we unfortunately struck on a reef off Pilot Key, one of the Berry islands, where we thumped and beat about for upwards of three hours, having a heavy sea running, and the vessel passing over the reef in three feet water. For the first hour I thought the vessel gone, as no exertions we could make seemed to have any effect in getting her head round. The next morning, at day break, commenced heaving in the cables, with a light breeze from the south, and got safely out by 7 A. M. on the 28d ult.—when, from the leaky and shattered state of the vessel, having seven feet of the keel on deck, it was the unanimous opinion of all, that it would be the height of imprudence to attempt completing our voyage in our present state, and that we ought to make the first port for the preservation of our lives, vessel and cargo: we therefore directed our course for Nassau, but the wind being light from S. W. did not reach it until the 24th Feb. We have brought all our cargo in, for the vessel made so much water that we could not throw it overboard. We have discharged and found the ground tier covered half way up. At present we are in the carpenters' hands, and do not know the extent of our damage, as the vessel requires caulking all over before we can see the keel. What cause to attribute our disaster to, I am at a loss to determine; for the course I gave, W. by N. nothing to leeward, having the wind free, will run clear ninety-nine out of a hundred times from the Hole-in-the-Wall to Stirrup's Key. It insured, give the under writers notice. I hope the loss will be small.

EXTRAORDINARY OCCURRENCE.

Extract of a letter from Bavaria.

"We have witnessed here a superb funeral of the Baron Hornstein, a Courtier—but the rusult is what induces me to mention it in my letter. Two days after, the workmen entered the mausoleum, when they witnessed an object which petrified them! At the door of the sepulchre lay a body covered with blood—it was the mortal remains of this favorite of courts and princes. The Baron was buried alive! On recovering from his trance he had forced the lid of the coffin, and endeavored to escape from a charnel house—it was impossible, and therefore, in a fit of desperation as it is supposed, he dashed his brains out against the wall. The royal family, and indeed the whole city, are plunged in grief at the horrid catastrophe.

Morning Paper.

SCOTLAND.

The Glasgow cotton trade is unparalleled this year. Great sales attended with severe losses, took place January 12th, in Glasgow, Dumfries and Greenock.

FRANCE.

December 26.

Government requires a loan of 200,000,000 fr. for the discharge of its current expences. Questions thereon in discussions by the chamber of deputies. Funds 5 per ct 63 f. Bank stock 148. M. de Cazes appointed prime minister. Richlieu resigned again—was accepted—fell sick—could not effect an amalgamation of contradictory properties.

December 30th.

New ministry augmented by M. de Cazes; marquis Denoles at the head; Richlieu minister of state, &c. Stock 67, (Official.) 29th—bank stock 1445. Divisions in the ministry confined to the election law; (this gives the right of voting to those who pay a direct contribution of 300f. and are 30 years of age.) Skating regulated by the police. National domains to be sold, and the proceeds invested in rentes. Funds repeatedly advancing; 30th, 66f. 75c: public confidence of course on the advance. Count Cazes and marshal Gouvoin St. Cyr are the only old ministers in place. Baron Louis, for the third time, holds the department of finance; an universal confidence has followed; administration united and firm; 1st. January, funds 65f. 5 per cents bank stock 1450. Funds Jan. 3, 66f. 75c. The court go into mourning for the queen of Spain. The duc de Richlieu has exhibited a noble example of patriotism in declining a "national recompence," which was about being bestowed upon him for his distinguished services; he has refused it on account of the distresses of his country. Funds (6th) 67f. 69c 80; bank stock 1495f; 1500. Every thing seems to be expected from the new ministry, but it will be difficult to satisfy these expectations, say Paris letters of the 6th.

STATE PENSIONS.

January 3.

Conformably to the 33d article of the law of the 25th of March, 1817, the government has published and distributed to the members of the two chambers (previously to the presentation of the projet of law on the finances of 1819, a general and alphabetical list of the state pensions inscribed from the 1st September, 1817, to the 1st October, 1818.

This list is composed of 4,458 individuals, amounting to an aggregage of 2,292,264 fr.—Namely, pensions on the civil list, 99 persons, 332,093 francs; military and widows' pensions, 4,143 persons, 1,918,563 francs; ecclesiastical pensions, 216 persons, 41,068 fr.

The pension proposed to Richlieu was 50,000 francs to be settled on him and his posterity. Jan. 15th, 5 per cents 68f 10c. Bank stock 1498 75c. 16th, former 66f 95c. latter 1500. Jan. 17—a kind of insurrection took place at the college of Louis-le-grand; about 800 of the younger students were engaged in it. The following specimen of French magnanimity is worthy of the days of chivalry—Duclos repeatedly assaulted Col. Fabvier, and at length provoked him to accept a challenge. They met; Duclos fired first, and grievously wounded colonel Fabvier in the shoulder. The latter answered by firing in the air, and pronounced the following remarkable words, which display a great mind: "Duclos, I was willing to become the victim of such a man as thou art, but honor forbids me to consider thee as my adversary."

A law upon the liberty of the press is in contemplation.

Marshal St. Cyr, it is said, among all the new ministers, is most distinguished by his promptitude and vigor.

It is supposed that a general change will take place in the diplomatique corps to the courts of Europe. Gen. Travot is finally pardoned. Funds (23) 68f; stationary to the latest advices.

HOLLAND.

One hundred and sixty persons missing in the fog at Amsterdam, supposed to be drowned. All intercourse prohibited between foreign vessels and the port of Batavia, or what is equivalent, a great duty is imposed on them.

Prussia assents to the last modification of the French payments to the allies. The entire discharge of which is therefore fixed at 1821, March 1. On the intervention of Russia and Prussia the Sublime Porte has recognized the king of the Netherlands.

A very general notion is entertained, that more suicides are committed in England than in other countries—and day after day the newspapers are filled with communications in which this is always assumed as an undoubted fact. The late publication of Mr. Campitz of Berlin, founded on official returns, proves that, in the towns of Prussia, the suicides are more numerous than they are in England. For instance.

	Population	Suicides in 1817.
Berlin	196,584	57
Potsdam (not including the Military)	15,429	77
Frankfort on the Oder	12,500	41
Breslau	63,020	58
Leignitz	10,000	37
Reichenbach	3,500	56
Magdeburg	27,869	50
Merseberg	6,000	30
Dusseldorf	15,000	24

We do not believe that in any one town of the British dominions, the capital not excepted, the suicides amount to one tenth of the rate of Reichenbach—which is no less than 1 to 62.

Berlin, Dec. 22

"An official statistical estimate of our Monarchy has been recently published.—Its details are as follows:

"Extent.——5,028 square geographical leagues, at 15 leagues to a degree.

"Population (1817)—10,588,157 souls, making 2,106 to each square league.

Males from 15 to 60 years of age—3,028,448.—Of 464,191 newly born infants, 38,585 were illegitimate. The mortality for the above year has been 2 in 69, that is on 33 men and 36 women. A ninth of the accidental deaths is attributed to the parents neglecting the benefits of vaccine inoculation; two ninths to suicide or drowning, by individuals bathing in the rivers.

"Since the return of Prince Hardenburgh, several changes have been spoken of. It is said that there will be a council of Ministers, and that the Prince will be president."

ITALY.

The Queen Maria Theresa, consort of Charles IV. of Spain, died on the 2nd of January.

Banditti formidable—police wretched—mails escorted by 60 dragoons—expedition under way—agents despatched abroad to contract for transports—Dec. 19, cold very severe—troubles very general, but not acknowledged by government.

NAPLES.

Slight eruptions of Vesuvius took place on the 4th December. Squadron under Com. Stewart, (at Syracuse) spoken of in terms of admiration—said to hold the most courteous intercourse with the British. Administration of justice totally reformed.

AUSTRIA.

Sweden it is said, ceded St. Barts to Russia, last June.

POLAND.

A statistical survey of Poland has been published at Warsaw. That Kingdom, in present state, contains 2191 square miles (15 to a degree,) 421 towns, 22,694 villages and a population of 732,324 souls of which 212,944 are Jews.

A Serious insurrection took place at Java, Sept. 17, 1818, among the Dutch troops, in which 4 or 500 persons were slain.

BAVARIA.

Number of families ascertained (by census) to be 789,109, or about 4 millions of population.

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Ponick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very tertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaister acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensils and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

September 4 GEORGE MASON.

Valuable Property for Sale.

THE subscriber is desirious of selling a handsomely situated farm, on Hunting creek, in Fairfax county Virginia, adjoining the Mount Vernon estate and the lands of general Thomson Mason, four miles from Alexandria, containing about 240 acres, 80 of which are in wood—10 to 50 in thriving meadow of clover and timothy—a part of the residue recently seeded with wheat and rye, and clover, last spring—the whole enclosed with a new post and rail fence.—The improvements are, a comfortable and convenient frame dwelling house and kitchen, smoke house, poultry house, granary and stables.—There is on this place a rich and productive garden, and a large body of marsh meadow, from which may be saved annually 100 tons of hay, nearly as nutricious as the best timothy or clover.—With the farm would be sold a number of very valuable horses, cows and sheep; waggon, carts, and a variety of farming utensils and household and kitchen furniture; corn, oats and rye, and 40 tons hay. Also, adjoining the one above described, a farm containing 160 acres, recently enclosed, on which is a brick house, which a trifling expense would render comfortable. The soil is excellent, and a considerable part might be easily converted into meadow.—it would be sold with the other or separately. Also, a number of valuable servants, male and female. To prevent unnecessary application, he would observe, that they will only be sold to persons residing in the District or its vicinity, and not to be carried from it. The subscriber will also sell the greater part of his household furniture, which is new and handsome. For terms of all or any part of the above property, apply to NOBLET HERBERT, esq. or

PROPOSALS

BY JOSEPH M. SANDERSON,
for publishing by subscription,
A BIOGRAPHY OF THE SIGNERS
TO THE
Declaration of Independence,
ACCOMPANIED WITH PLATES;

To which will be annexed a history of the proceedings of congress during the passage of the law, and the Declaration itself, with fac-simile engravings of the siguatures.

By PAUL ALLEN, Esq.

TO THE PUBLIC.

IT seems a little surprising that amongst so many subjects as have been presented for American Biography, the lives of those who have affixed their signatures to the Declaration of Independence have been overlooked or disregarded. The eyes of thousands have dwelt with rapture upon the document that announced to the world that "these United Colonies were, and of right ought to be, free, sovereign, and independent states;" while we are better acquainted with the handwriting than with the characters of many of those illustrious men who have added their signatures to that instrument. The founders of the only remaining republic on the globe, have, with a few splendid exceptions, gone to their graves, and it behoves a generous posterity, sensible of their obligations, to preserve their fame. The longer we neglect the payment of so sacred a debt, the more difficult does the payment become.—Traits of individual character are fugitive and evanescent; and if they are not snatched by the hand of the Biographic Muse, at an early season, from the cold grasp of death, will soon partake of the oblivion of the body.—It is not the object of the present attempt, to deal in that profusion of indiscriminate and unsparing panegyric, so often and so falsely dignified with the name of Biography: we wish to represent the characters as they were; they stand in need of no panegyric; and we earnestly solicit from the surviving relations and friends of those revolutionary patriots all the information that will tend to a developement of character. Man is the creature of circumstance, and we wish to show the progress of those patriots from their first resistance of colonial aggression, until they stood forth the noble and undaunted champions of their country's independence. All this can only be done by a familiar acquaintance with the lives of these men, and whoever of the surviving friends or relatives will furnish facts and circumstances in their possession to unfold and illustrate their characters, shall be entitled to a copy of the work as a recompense. It is contemplated, wherever it is practicable, further to embellish the meditated work with correct likenesses of the subjects of our biography, executed by the most eminent artists in the country. For this purpose we again solicit the assistance of their surviving relatives and friends. If they will transmit to the publisher any engraving or portrait from which a copy may be taken, the original shall be faithfully returned, and shall likewise be remunerated with a copy of the work. In the first number it is proposed to give an account of the Declaration of Independence, from the first motion that was made on the floor of congress until its final passage into a law, a period embracing much curious and secret history: finally, we promise to add to our last number the Declaration of Independence itself, with fac-simile engravings of the signatures. We have now compendiously stated the objects of our present undertaking, and we hope that it will be unnecessary to mention that no exertions on our part shall be spared.

The public are now in possession of our project, which does indeed seem to be demanded, by the avidity so recently displayed for the possession of the Declaration of Independence, since it is of very little import to become acquainted with a man's hand writing without a previous knowledge of the man. The secret history of our Declaration of Independence, the lives of those who have affixed their signatures to that instrument, accompanied by their likenesses, and finally the Declaration itself with fac-similes of the signatures, will bring into one compact view the prominent facts of that interesting crisis.

CONDITIONS.

I. The work will be published in numbers, or half volumes, of 150 pages octavo, and will be contained in ten numbers.

II. It will be printed on fine paper made expressly for the purpose, and delivered to subscribers at two dollars and fifty cents per half volume or number, payable on delivery.

☞ Subscriptions will be received at the office of the Alexandria Gazette.
